

Transport Group update

Committee Member, Carol Ovenstone chaired the latest Transport Group Meeting at Oxford Street in Glasgow on the 14th July. The group were updated on the work that SDWG volunteer Maureen has been doing with Glasgow Airport and the Civil Aviation Authority around supporting people with a hidden illness when travelling.

Occupational Therapy Interns

Alzheimer Scotland Occupational Therapy Interns, Rachel Bew and Marianne Wallace (pictured below) have met with some of the SDWG members to work on a couple of projects together. The final touches have been put to a 'Top Tips' leaflet that the group had worked on.

A photography project which captures images of the group as they go about their daily lives is also in the pipeline.

Glasgow General Meeting

The fourth Glasgow General Meeting of the year took place on the 28th July at the Gorbals Parish Church. It was great to see some new faces there, as well as welcoming back some members we haven't seen for a while.

Alzheimer Scotland's Policy and Engagement Manager, Arlene Crockett (pictured left) spoke to the group about the work she is doing in the Glasgow, East Dunbartonshire and the North and South Lanarkshire areas.

SDWG North East update

The Perth Group held its monthly meeting on the 25th July. The group were pleased to welcome two speakers who both gave interesting talks on community connections in the local area. SDWG Committee Vice Chair, Archie Noone chaired the meeting and gave a local and national update of the SDWG.

The Perth Group meeting in July

Dundee SDWG Committee Members, Archie Noone and Carol Ovenstone attended the last Committee Meeting using Microsoft Lync. This technology allowed them to take part in the meeting without them having to travel to Glasgow.
