

Conflict of Interest – Handling Flow Chart

This relates to the different forms of conflict of interests for charity trustees and what procedures should be followed. 'Appointment Conflict' and 'Personal Conflict' (or private benefit) have prescribed rules that must be followed; other forms of conflict of interest will require the Trustees to decide on an appropriate procedure. OSCR recommends that as part of any Conflict of Interest procedure, an up to date register of Trustees Interests should be kept.

